WITH YOU ALL THE WAY

We wanted to put it down in writing. To define our purpose for everyone to read, providing total transparency and total honesty. To sum it up we use 5 words. These 5:

'With You All The Way'

That's our commitment to employees, distributors, suppliers, the environment, communities and the journeys and dreams (of everyone that wears our garments). It's a lofty goal but we believe in always doing the right thing. Not the easy thing or most profitable. But the right thing. Because we are with you all the way.

For a fuller explanation of what it all means, please visit auroraclothing.co.nz/our-purpose

A NEW ZEALAND STORY WITH PURPOSE

It's 1966. In downtown Auckland, Grandpa started making clothing. The centre of our world was a tiny warehouse, upstairs on Queen Street. There was a cutting table, some racking for fabric and a few shelves for finished garments. Luxury was a kettle and jar of instant coffee. There was no fridge for the milk, so it didn't really matter how you liked it. If you visited, your coffee was served black and strong.

We may have been tight on space. We may have been surrounded by more mess than we liked. But creativity and quality was never stifled. Pretty soon we began to build a reputation for high quality childrenswear. Over the next few decades, the clothing industry underwent an unprecedented change. We tried to keep up. Sometimes we got ahead. Sometimes we fell behind. But we adapted and we're still here.

That little warehouse in Queen Street has long gone. Nowadays the centre of our world is Invercargill. The range is much larger and we offer a bit of something for everyone. From winter wear to athleisure. It's all ready to be branded. All ready for that bit of added flair. Or can be worn as is. Unadorned and simple.

As for the future? Who knows. We're just happy to be where we are. We'll concentrate on doing things the right way, for the right reasons. The rest will hopefully work itself out. If it doesn't...well, we're pretty sure Grandpa will let us know. He's still here and in the office every day.

STOCK SERVICE

Aurora garments are designed for branding, using either screenprinting, embroidery or other embellishment methods.

Styles are stocked in New Zealand and are generally available for overnight delivery nationwide. There is no minimum order; beneficial if someone joins your team or group and you need just that extra single garment.

A PROCESS ROOTED IN ETHICALITY

The apparel industry is incredibly complex. Your garments will go on a long journey, from a field of cotton waiting to be picked, a paddock full of merino sheep needing shearing, or from the incredibly complex machinery required by man-made yarns. The process involves many relationships, spanning multiple continents, languages and cultures.

It gets even more complex when you do it the right way. For us, that means an emphasis on the ethics and sustainability of our supply chain.

Our factory code of conduct is based on the 12 principles set out by the WRAP Organisation (Worldwide Responsible Accreditation). These principles include the prohibition of forced labour, child labour, abuse, discrimination; and ensure fair compensation, working hours, environment, and health and safety. We believe a factory should not only meet these standards 'on paper' but that a culture of care should exist top down. Once a factory is selected, we then conduct periodic audits to ensure these standards are upheld.

THE AURORA BRAND

Since 1994, Aurora garments have been designed to support a spirit of discovery, of embracing the unexpected and seizing opportunities.

The range of jackets, merino tops and teamwear has supported individuals, companies, teams and groups to get the most out of each and every day.

Today, Aurora is worn by a number of leading teams and organizations throughout New Zealand.

THE CLOKE BRAND

A range of 'cotton casuals', Cloke has been providing comfort and attitude for individuals since 2015 with urban hoodies, tees & more.

Cloke is also the supporting act: Cloke garments are the base for many brands, logos, teams, groups and schools.

For anyone who wants to add their own stamp...or attitude.

CLOKE

JACKETS

TECHNICAL FEATURES

3-Layer Softshell
The ultimate in versatility. Water resistant, breathable and wind-blocking.

Hybrid Outer
Woven face laminated to a knitted backing improves durability and warmth while retaining the comfort and style of a lighter fabric.

Water Resistant
Reflects the weight of water the fabric will stand. The higher the number, the more water resistant. (excludes seams)

Stretch Fabric
4-way stretch for comfort and freedom of movement.

Embroidery Access
Concealed embroidery access means your logo not only looks great on the outside, but the backing is concealed behind the jacket lining.

Cord Management
Store your music player safely in its pocket and run the headphone cord through the designated audio access port.

Breathable
The higher the rating, the faster moisture is conducted away from the body.

Styles
Complementary mens and womens styles, or adults and kids - great for uniforms.

Insulation
When you're serious about warmth. Poly fill insulation between the outer and lining traps air while remaining lightweight enough for everyday wear.

Custom Puller
This garment can be customized with alternative zip pullers.

Most stock Aurora jackets can be customized by adding contrasting zip pullers.

11 colours are available ex-stock, with no minimum order.

Match your zip puller to your logo for a subtle yet sophisticated look.

Zip puller colour options.
